

25N DAY FOR THE ELIMINATION OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

IES Viera y Clavijo 2021

25N Haikus

What's a Haiku?

Haikus* are short poems which originated in Japan over 400 years ago. You can think of a haiku as a poem of 17 syllables, normally written in three lines of 5, 7 and 5 syllables.

Traditional Haikus include a kigo (a word related to seasons) and tend to establish relationships between Nature and human nature, although nowadays, they are also used to express ideas about trending topics in a poetic way.

These are the Haikus related to the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women done by the students of 2º Bach D

If I don't have you close to me, you'll regret it Fear ain't love

By Alexia Mei
Arteaga Díaz

She loved him,
She lived for him,
He ended her life.

By Iván Chinaa Torres

Flourishing woman,
dreamer, fighter and winner,
claim what is yours!

By Pablo Hernández Fernández

I control you or I don't love you, hold on, but,
that was the question?

By Óscar Manuel
Hernández Suárez

Don't drown
in a sea of tears.
Shout your grief.

By Daniel Javier Barbuzano

As she stood up
she felt no fear, but power:
her tears were now snow

By Aymar Lara Ramos

My poor heart
suffers in silence
all this pain

By Abdón Senén Meléndez Díaz

You are not alone girl,
If you need help for something,
You can ask for help

By Gabriel Melián
de Rozas

Women should be free
no brave against the sexism
Like a bird at spring

By Diego Ramírez Cruz

We will remember the colour purple
on the 25th November.

By Saúl Ruiz Fernández.

Not a hit that hurts,
not a word that wounds the heart
respect for each other

By Daniel Pérez Rodríguez

IES Viera y Clavijo 2021
Departamento de Inglés

