

Dracula

Dracula is a famous book whose writer is Bram Stoker. The original book was published in 1897. However, the book which I read is an adaptation by the editorial Burlington Books.

Dracula is a horror gothic novel. The plot is about a lawyer, Jonathan Harker, who goes to the Count's Castle and when he is there he discovers that the count is a vampire and catches him in his castle. Jonathan comes out hurt. On the other hand, Mina Murray, Jonathan's wife, is staying in England when her friend Lucy gets very sick. Dr Seward and Professor Van Helsing discover that Dracula has bitten Lucy and she becomes a vampire. Jonathan recovers and he, Dr Seward, Van Helsing and Arther, Lucy's boy, go to kill Lucy for her to rest in peace. Afterwards, Dracula makes Mina drink his blood. Finally, could the other men kill Dracula and could Mina be rescued? To know it you must read the book.

This book inspired many stories of Count Dracula and it won many awards. In honour of this writer there is an award for the best horror novels called Bram Stoker Award.

From my point of view, this book is very good to learn English and very entertaining. It is read in a few days. So if you want to read a good book, I recommend it to you.
